ENCOURAGE HOME TRADE.

It seems to be a peculiarity of the American people to value most highly those commodities which are brought from the greatest distance, without special regard to the intrinsic merits thereof. This disposition is amply evidenced by the statistics of our foreign trade and anyone who will take the trouble to analyze the details of our enormous importations, which have kept the balance of trade so heavily against us for many years, must be surprised at the amount of money sent abroad to purchase articles that could be obtained just as cheaply and of as good quality in our own markets. This tendency to prize even an inferior article because happens to bear a foreign brand has cost us at least, costing our country millions of dollars annually, and it springs from that desire to have something different from our neighbors, which is responsible for a vast amount of extravagance among all classes of the people. Undoubtedly commercial intercourse with other nations is important, and should be encouraged to mutual prosperity, but the encouragement to industry should, properly begin at home and a sense of patriotism and pride should be aroused to give the preference to the advantage to the home enterprise which yields employment and support to our own people, while sharing our public duties and adding to the material welfare of our centres and the nation.

Our present purpose, however, is not to discuss a matter in its national bearings, but its application to local interests. The same feeling which prompts our people as a class to spend across the ocean for what could be obtained at home, is found to exist in all classes, and all local trades and industries suffer from the action of many individuals who, while professing to learn goods some what cheaper elsewhere than in the home market, forget that "our city" it is becoming of it and had taken the initiative to correct the abuses as soon as they were discovered.

BILL ABOLISHING COMPULSORY PILOTAGE. The N. Y. Tribune's Washington correspondent says:—"The majority of the Hell Gate pilots will find their occupation gone, if Senator Hamlin's bill to relieve vessels engaged in the coasting trade from compulsory pilotage, passed by the Senate Monday, becomes a law. It was asserted in the debate that preceded the passage of the bill that there are now engaged at Hell Gate 45 pilots, who earn on an average $4,000 each a year. They have only one pilot boat, and row about Hell Gate in their yawls, and board passing vessels which are in tow of steamers and collect from them the legal fees without rendering any service. It was also asserted that half a dozen pilots could perform all the legitimate service needed, and that the present fees were an unjust and unnecessary tax on New England commerce." The text of the bill as passed is as follows:—

Be it enacted, etc, That no owner agent, master, or consignee of any ship or vessel, when trading between district and district, or between different places in the same district, or carrying on the fishery business shall, by virtue of the laws of any state, be compelled to take, employ, or pay a pilot not voluntarily employed on entering or departing from any port or harbor, or entering, passing through, or leaving any channel, passage or strait within the waters of the United States.

GEN BUTLER SICK. The Boston Traveller's special says that Gen. Butler was taken seriously ill again Tuesday night, and the physician who was called in remained at the bedside some time until the pain was in some measure alleviated. On Wednesday he had improved but slightly, but was unable to leave his bed. He sent word to Mr. Dawes that he could not take part in the Salary grab debate, as he hoped to. The Sanborn report was called up and on motion of Mr Dawes was postponed on account of the illness of General Butler.

THE MILL RIVER RESERVOIR. At the examination of the breach of the Mill River reservoir by the Massachusetts Legislature Committee Tuesday, it was proved that the work had not been done according to the specifications, as the foundations had not been built four feet below the bottom of the reservoir as specified, and the result was that the water worked through the earth under the foundation and gradually caused the breach. The embankment of the wall also proves to be 40 feet narrower than the contract specified.

AMERICAN SOCIAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION. The first session of the annual meeting of the American Social Science Association was held in New York Tuesday evening, President George W Curtis in the chair, Sar Dr Woolsey of New Haven, read a paper in favor of the exemption of private property, but contraband of war, from seizure. A paper on financial administration was read by Gamaliel Bradford of Boston, condemning the inflation of the currency and our system of finance.

THE LAKE MEGANTIC R R. The St John Telegraph says:—"The prospects of this road, so important to St John, are considered good, so far as the raising of funds in England are concerned. Mr Pope and Mr Burpee are going heartily into the work, and intend to put it through."

THE CINCINNATI CRUSADE is A Cincinnati despatch states that the forty-three temperance women arrested last Saturday were tried in the Police Court on Wednesday. The Court Room was crowded, and a great mass of people who were unable to get in, waited outside. The testimony was heard, and the case submitted without argument. The charge was for violating the city ordinance by obstructing the sidewalks. Judge Marchant stated that there had been a technical violation of the law, but in view of the lack of a bad motive on the part of the defendants, he would dismiss them with the admonition that if the actions operated they would be liable to arrest and punishment.

END OF THE ST JOHN'S STRIKE. A despatch from St. John, N B, says the difficulties between the mill owners and operatives is practically at an end, the operatives almost having abandoned the clause prohibiting non union men from working. All the mills here will start up now proposing to start again.

Ralph Cross, the engineer, and a member of the Board of Public Works of the District of Columbia, has turned State's evidence against the Board, and makes serious charges of corruption.

An error occurred in the report in reference to the money paid by the Brazilian Government to Mr Webb, the American Minister. It was $11 2a2 sterling, not dollars, that was paid to Mr Webb, and it was $55,000, not dollars, that was transmitted to the State Department.

Twenty more of the bodies of the drowned by the Mill River disaster were discovered Tuesday, making 117 in all. The Springfield Republican is confident that the number of the drowned does not exceed 150. The amount of the relief fund, so far as the local relief committee had been informed up to Tuesday evening, was over $45,000.

Despatches from Arkansas say it is thought that a general system of fraud has been practiced on the State and the Auditor's and Treasurer's books of the State officials will be thoroughly overhauled. All the people on both sides denounce Senator Clayton and Congressman Dorsey and if they return to the State they will be arrested for conspiracy against the State.

SOUTH CAROLINA OFFICIALS IN TROUBLE. Governor Moses and ex Treasurer Huestert of Orangeburg, S C, have been indicted by a Republican grand jury on charges of breach of trust and fraudulent intentions, and for grand larceny. Solicitor Butler moved that Judge Gorham issue bench warrants for the arrest of the parties. The Judge reserved his decision. The indictment charges Moses with having counselled and advised Huebert the defaulting County Treasurer, to use $6000 of the State taxes to pay his (Moses) private debts. The Court granted bench warrants for the arrest of Moses, and the sheriff left Orangeburg Monday night for Columbia. The sheriff of Orangeburg county made a rush to arrest Governor Moses Tuesday morning, at his private residence in Columbia, S C. The Governor declined to accept the service of the writs. He called upon Brigadier General Neal, commander of the National Guards (all colored,) to furnish him military protection. Soon three companies were out under arms, and were distributed between the Executive office and the Governor's residence. Large crowds gathered in the streets and around the guarded points. In the afternoon, on the advice of his counsel, the Governor concluded to submit to the law and give bail. He did not surrender to the Orangeburg sheriff, but to Mr. Coleman, coroner of Richland county. The troops were dismissed. The streets were filled with the military and business was paralyzed.

—A later despatch contradicts the statement that Gov. Moses submitted to arrest. He concluded to yield, and sent his carriage for an officer empowered to make the a rest, but at the last moment changed his mind, and again refused to be arrested. Wednesday morning he obtained a warrant for the arrest of the Orangeburg sheriff on a charge of attempting illegally to arrest the Governor, but the Sheriff had left Columbia. In Orangeburg the State Solicitor regrets the Governor's resistance to arrest, and declared what steps the Court would take to enforce its authority. The Court replies, that for the present it did not see its way clear to a contempt fight with the State militia and further action will be held under advisement.

All was quiet in Columbia Wednesday, the troops were disbanded, and it was understood that Gov. Moses would stand trial.

DR. SCHENCK'S

Standard Remedies!

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea-weed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed a speedy cure is effected.

The above three medicines are prepared by DR. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, who has had unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, assists them to cast it up in easy expectoration, relieves the patient at once, and by its healing qualities gives the lungs rest and the tissues begin to heal.

To enable the Pulmonic Syrup to do this, Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea-weed Tonic are necessarily used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing its obstructions, cause the gall bladder, the bile ducts freely, and the blood to purify itself.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gastric stimulant and alterative, the effect of which is to excite the nerves with the food, and promote a healthy digestion. It assists by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food taken into it will make good blood; then it aids the lungs to heal, and the patient will surely get well if care be taken to prevent a relapse.

Dr. Schenck can be consulted at the Quincy House, Boston, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, April 6th, 7th and 8th of each month, when he will give his advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the fee is $5.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea-weed Tonic and Schenck's Mandrake Pills are each separately and distinctly explained in Schenck's Almanac, which can be had of all Druggists, free.

THE RIDE OF COLLINS GRAVES

BY JOHN BOYLE O'REILLY

[Incident in the Flood in Massachusetts on May 16, 1874.]

Morning. A shudder rifting down
The ragged belt from Windmaker town,
And a sigh like that about the earth
When a mother clasps as a New-born birth,
Half a sob of joy and half of pain
At the coming of a human soul again.
Morning. And they that sat by the fires of fear
Wonder if they have lived through a year
In the night that parted the diamond rills
As the sun comes over the Hampshire hills.

What was it that passed like an ominous breath
Through the river of fear in a storm of dear
White wash? The valley lay peaceful still,
A dimpling mirror of sun and hill.
It was a wind in the night of calm—
But a pulse stilled the pang of the silent alarm
That wrung the bells of three towns who saw
Not but the guilt of Eternity.

The air of the valley has felt the chill,
The waters are paused at the door of the mill
That it moveth, and only the flaming air,
And the wrath of God on the cottage shall
Feel its weight in the mother's love,
And thanks of the elect sing to Above.

What was the blame? Why does the course
Of the guiltless turn to a curse?
He knew that the music of this he'd say,
That gallop so wildly Williamsburg way?

Oh, what was the like a human shriek
From the whirling wake? We shall only speak,
When it is no more, of those who say
As the awful wreckage thunder by"

Where some they'll stem! and now they hear
Those awful fiddling home roof-near,
Then the chimney tops, then the gable peer
Like, who but fate is managing?
With warning arms and warning cries
In hours of real peril the valley strains.
But the hours pass but the hours flee,
Will make all on the river of the spring feet
For the waters rise to Bliss to be stilled
Like the Lord of Israel

If it was a night—but they know the worst—
In the cross current of Amesbury dash has it
Its first—the Merrimack—Lowell
In Nashua—it comes
And the river is free!—Washington front
Of the best may be shatter—with its hamlet and Summer

The dead were terror in their eyes
Of the narrow valley, and each leaves,
With its beauty or worth a
Ridge and [illegible] and crowded by

But onward still,
[illegible] flowing flood is borne,
Over [illegible] and whose swell
[illegible] the [illegible] spared
